HISTORIC WINTON NEXT

The 34th Historic Winton will be run under AASA rules. The rumour mill has it that Winton didn't have a CAMS track licence or current sanction or something when entries were opened, so it had to be AASA or nothing.

I am sure that has all been fixed now as the V8SC circus will be there next week. There was a silver lining though. It was the big chance for those of you who had non CAMS log book cars to have a run at a real race meeting and record a real race time instead of regularity and more regularity. Seems that not many took up the challenge.

The regulars from JKL in WA are on there way in late May, seems not too many others though. I make it that the crew will be, Me with the now low profile and regeared BMH, Charlie with the TS of course, Trevor with the Alvis, John Rowe with the new acquisition the CWM (the Healey and the Alvis and the Mercury have to stay home) Yes John has sold the other John the CWM and Gwen Meredith will be there with the Pug.

The burning question for me is will the Peugeot run in a race? For I don't know how long I have been hearing how good a race car it is and what its capable of but I haven't seen it yet on the time sheets and now its time to see what it can do. I have been doing my best to tease Bob about his non race car and have got all sorts of excuses as to why it wont race, but what's the excuse now Robert? I will even pay for the AASA race licence I mean its only about $30!!!

Winton and other stuff.

Therefore if you see him in the paddock give it too him please. Ask him for his race time at Winton. I have even taken the precaution of booking a professional driver to take control if needed.

Lou Symes has come up with a terrific excuse for non attendance, he is getting married. Just dandy Lou, but why can't you come to Winton for the honeymoon?? I am sure Melody would love a nice break at the Glenrowan Hotel, Good enough for Ned Kelly!!

Well done and congratulations Lou and Melody. Not sure if John D will be coming I have heard on the grape vine two different versions, one yes he is and one he is not but I can not for the life of me see why the 10 year veteran of Winton wont be there, its not like he is getting married or something.

If you have read this far then its fairly obvious we haven't got much news to report here in WA, well that's possibly true and often the case this time of year as we don't have any events at Barbagallo Raceway early on in the years, many are off racing on the east coast, in 2010 we will have run at 4 race meeting in the eastern states and New Zealand but we have some great events coming up.

The June long weekend will be the first event of note. As everyone knows the June long weekend is the Albany Around the Houses. It is shaping up to be as good as always. This year was going to be a watershed for Albany as it was going to run up against the V8 Super Car round at Barbagallo, however it seems that the Boys at V8SC got a little greedy or pushy, I don't know which, and dropped the footy and went to race in Queensland or somewhere, so we have the weekend to ourselves for a change. Mini Car Club has the Motorkhana on, the LF Sprint Series will run two rounds, Mt Clarence and the treacherous Wind Farm and of course the full program of street events in the centre of town.

Its a week after Winton so I will be driving the Chevrolet which is like the best thing on the streets so get ready all you people who are not heading east. In the words of MacArthur I shall return!

Then we start the full round of events at Barbagallo I have reproduced the Calendar matrix for you all on the next page so you can follow it as the year goes on.

The Clem Dwyer will be the focus event this year and is down for August 1st See who will be racing on the Calendar Matrix.

Updated by WASCC Competition and Events Committee 23 February 2010

Our first race meeting will be the 11th of July so be ready this will be followed by the Clem Dwyer meeting and we will be running regularly as well so please keep an eye out on the WASCC web site for entry details. It is a multi club event so all are welcome. The next event on the calendar will be the Night

Masters meeting. Which is always a great event. Of course we wont be running at night except for the sports cars so it is a great opportunity to bring the family along and participate and then sit down and enjoy the racing
