NORTHAM
Flying 50
 A Smoke Free Event

Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the
Touring Car Championships

Sunday 28th March 2010

A weekend in Northam that recreates the Round-the-Houses event that was first held in 1952, now known as the Northam Flying 50. Older classic, sporting and racing cars will compete in the streets of Northam just as they did in 1952. In addition, this year marks the 50th Anniversary of the Touring Car Championship first ever event.

Apart from the excitement on the track, there will be a Family Fun Day in Avon Mall and Fitzgerald Street. There will be market stalls to ensure that Fitzgerald Street is at the centre of all the action. In addition the shops and cafes in the main street will be open for the entire event, making it a guaranteed day of action for the entire family.

If your thinking of making a weekend of it, do not miss the Saturday night Country Cabaret Concert in Bernard Park, featuring "The Pioneers" and supported by "Travis". So with plenty of Northam's famous accommodation venues in and around the town, we look forward to seeing you there.
